Malathi Iyengar & Rangoli Dance Company present: Krishna – a magnificent incarnation

June 24, 2017 - Saturday @ 8:00pm

Barnsdall Gallery Theatre, 4800 Hollywood Blvd, Hollywood CA

Classical Indian dance, music, and visual designs express a scope of artistic and spiritual experience that extends from the intimate to the infinite. The concert features “Bharatanatyam” dances (Classical dances of India) to enact stories related to Lord Krishna. The numerous deities in the Hindu Pantheon are considered manifestations of the Supreme Spirit, which can take any form any time. India is a storehouse of myths and legends and these dances reveal stories that depict HIM as the infant, the lover, and the supreme Lord. Come join Rangoli Dance Company as Artistic Directors Malathi and Lakshmi Iyengar unite their creative forces and evocative choreography for this exciting journey!

Choreographer Malathi Iyengar is the recipient of the 2013 C.O.L.A Choreography Fellowship from the City of Los Angeles and the 2010 Lester Horton Award for Outstanding Achievement in World Dance for her choreography ‘Shivaya’. Iyengar is a recipient of numerous awards for her choreographic works and is recognized as a Master Artist of Bharatanatyam dance by the Alliance for California Traditional Artists. Established in 1985, The Rangoli Foundation celebrated a significant milestone of 30 years of creativity and artistic excellence in 2015. In recognition, the Los Angeles County Arts Commission and City of Los Angeles Cultural Affairs Department have honored Rangoli Foundation with a Certificate and Resolution.
